ANN RANSON

June 15, 2026: Ann Ranson - Heart-Centered Strategies: Where Strategy Meets Soul

Ann Ranson works with people who want to align purpose and performance – so decisions are clearer, burnout is reduced and sustainable. Her programs draw on over 30 years of experience in sales, marketing, and leadership, along with a deep foundation spiritual and personal development.

A speaker, coach, and facilitator, she brings a Heart-Centered Strategies approach – Where strategy meets soul and performance reflects what matters most.

Reimagining Success: Five Keys to What Matters Most
Success changes as life changes. In this insightful, yet practical presentation, Ann Ranson will guide participants through five reflection questions designed to help them reconnect with what matters most, align purpose with performance, and identify one small next step toward greater clarity, meaning, and sustainable results.

Detective Dustin Penland: Richardson Police Department

Dustin Penland is a Detective with the Richardson Police Department, currently serving in his third year in the Criminal Investigations Division (CID) Property Crimes Unit, where he specializes in Auto Theft investigations. He is currently in his 12th year of service as a law enforcement officer. Prior to joining the Richardson Police Department, Dustin served his first five years in law enforcement with the Dallas Police Department. During his ten years with Richardson PD, Dustin served in patrol operations and as a School Resource Officer before being assigned to CID. In addition to his investigative duties, he has proudly served on the Richardson Police Department's Hostage Negotiations Team for the past eight years.

Tate Milroy: Richardson Fire Department

Tate Milroy is a husband and father to a nine-month-old son. He began his career with RFD in December 2019 as a member of Class 41, where he graduated as a validator. Over the past six years, he has been assigned to B Shift at Station 1, gaining experience in a high-volume environment and responding to a wide range of incidents, including multiple structure fires and critical medical emergencies.

Tate has served as a tactical paramedic for the SWAT team and as a member of the Emergency Medical Task Force for two years, operating in high-risk and specialized settings. He has also been selected to serve as a Field Training Officer, where he mentors and develops new paramedics.

He has remained committed to professional growth throughout his career, completing Driver Operator, Fire Officer, and Fire Instructor I and II, along with multiple firefighter skill development courses and advanced training as a tactical paramedic.

Tate has received multiple lifesaving awards in recognition of his patient care and was recently selected to serve as the lead instructor for the upcoming Class 46. He is dedicated to maintaining high standards, contributing to team success, and helping develop the next generation of firefighters.
