DFW AIRPORT - RICKY GRIFFIN, ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT, INTEGRATED OPERATIONS CENTER

August 10, 2026: DFW Airport - Ricky Griffin, Assistant Vice President, Integrated Operations Center

Ricky Griffin is a proven aviation operations leader with more than 12 years of experience at Dallas Fort Worth International Airport. Ricky began his career in Customer Experience as a Guest Relations Coordinator, where a passion for service excellence quickly propelled him into the role of Project Coordinator. In that capacity, Ricky led initiatives that strengthened the passenger experience and supported airport-wide service innovation.

He later advanced to lead the Experience Hub team, guiding its successful integration into the airport's Integrated Operations Center (IOC). Today, Ricky serves as Assistant Vice President of the IOC, where he oversees the IOC Management team and directs complex, cross-functional operational strategies. His leadership centers on optimizing processes, elevating real-time decision-making, and fostering strong stakeholder collaboration to ensure DFW Airport operates with world-class precision.

In 2023, Ricky was honored as a recipient of the Airport Business 40 Under 40 award, recognizing his industry impact, forward-thinking leadership, and meaningful contributions to the future of airport operations.

Ricky holds a Bachelor of Science in Aerospace Administration from Middle Tennessee State University and remains deeply committed to advancing operational excellence, empowering diverse teams, and shaping the next generation of leaders in the aviation industry.
