

neighborsgo.com

Business

ROWLETT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Rotary recognized with monthly honor

By LOUISE BROWN
Contributor

The Rowlett Chamber of Commerce recognized the Rotary Club of Rowlett as the Organization of the Month for December.

Criteria for this award includes modeling high ethical standards, practicing exemplary customer service, demonstrating a can-do attitude, upholding chamber goals, supporting Rowlett citizens and businesses, and maintaining chamber membership.

The Rotary Club is a service organization and is involved in a number of projects and charities in the Rowlett area. The group's projects include Adopt a Rowlett Angel Tree, Rowlett Needy Children's Fund, Rowlett Teacher of the Year, Community Blood Drive and the Rotary Flag Program.

Not only do they provide for local charities, Rotary International has taken a primary role in the eradication of polio from the planet and are helping ensure clean water in under-developed areas.

Photo submitted by LOUISE BROWN

Rotary Club of Rowlett members (from left) Leon Dudley, Brad Daniels, Paul Atwood, Scott Brittell, Dale Rasberry and Mickey Shaw accept the award for Organization of the Month by the Rowlett Chamber of Commerce.

The club donated more than $6,000 to groups in need of assistance.

Louise Brown contributes to neighborsgo on behalf of the Rowlett Chamber of Commerce.