FIFTH THURSDAY in JANUARY JAYHAWK ROTARY SOCIAL

Hossein Gerami sampled the pre-breakfast treats prepared by Maceli's.

Wayne Whitney, Mark Andersen, Nancy Vogel, and Delmar Falen found a comfortable place to sit during the social on the fifth Thursday, January 30.

Devon Kim, who was the official greeter for the morning, conversed with Dave Darwin and Nicole Van Velsen.

Jason McCandless coordinated the morning's social.

Pat McCandless, Scott Willette, Doug Paul listened intently to Brad Finkeldei's comments.

Members of Bookhawks, the Jayhawk Rotary book club, took time to discuss their next meeting.

John Robertson checked his phone for a suggested book while Randy Krehbiel and Rod Nitz looked on.

Jesse Brinson and Dave Loch enjoyed each other's company.

Stan Rasmussen and Pat Brown caught up on the news.

Wayne Whitney, financial advisor for Ameriprise Financial Service in Lawrence and former Jayhawk Rotary president, announced his retirement on February 6, 2020.

Jaunty Assuring Yammer recalls:

My goal in 2020 is to accomplish the goals I set in 2019 which I should have done in 2018 because I made a promise in 2017 which I planned in 2015.

TWO NEW JAYHAWK ROTARY MEMBERS

Elizabeth Lanphear joined the Jayhawk Breakfast Rotary Club on February 20. Liz is the state relationship manager for Pearson, a General Educational Development Testing Service. She supports adult education with resources to teach those in need of completing the GED exam and getting a high school diploma.

She is active on the Heartland Community Health Center Board and previously was the treasurer for the Kansas Adult Education Association and board member for the Kansas Association for the Medically Underserved. Liz also volunteers at Velocity Church on a regular basis.

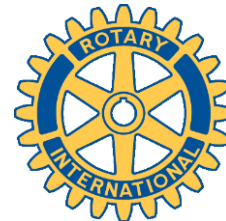

Liz graduated from Clear Creek High School, League City, Texas. Her undergraduate degree was from Friends Bible College (now Barclay College) in Haviland. She earned two master's degrees: one in adult, continuing, and occupational education from Kansas State University in Manhattan and the other in health and physical education from Emporia State University.
