Rotary Newsmakers

We love you Kathryn Corazelli! This Summit Daily News reporter has discovered how interesting it is to write about Rotarians.

If you missed them in the paper, check out the three nice articles in the past three days.

Club Board meeting

The Club Board will meet at the Holiday Inn at noon on Tuesday, March 13th. Bring your own lunch.

Save the date: April 17th

Mark your calendar, and your spouse's calendar too. On Tuesday, April 17th we will meet for dinner instead of breakfast. Chef Bill Gilchrist will cater the meal, so it's sure to be delicious. 6pm at the Senior Center.

RYLA applications are now open

Online applications for the 2012 RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Award) and Young RYLA conferences are now open at www.rmryla.org. If you know a current 7th, 10th, or 11th grader, encourage them to apply.

New Bios

by Peggy Beeler

Scott Turner grew up in Kansas City often vacationing in Colorado. He attended the University of Missouri at Kansas City and received his Bachelor's Degree in Political Science. He then entered Law School, took the bar exam at 23 and began practicing law at the age of 24. He opened up a law practice with friends in 1992 in Independence, Mo. He served as Chairman of the City Planning Commission for 10 years and taught Business Law, First Amendment Law and other subjects at Baker University. In 1998 he was accepted to the state bar of Colorado, worked for the DA's office in Glenwood Springs and Chief Deputy District Attorney. He then served at the DA's office in Colorado Springs. In 2007 he came to Summit County and soon became Assistant DA. He enjoys teaching courses to police officers, attorneys across the state, working in combating domestic violence and victim's groups all over the world. He works with young people, Crime Stopper's programs, Board of Adjustment for the Summit County Commissioners and volunteers at the Summit County Animal Shelter. Scott loves to hike, playing the guitar and photography.

Joel Cochran is the Emergency Manager for Summit County Government and has lived and worked in Summit County for over 28 years. I am a Colorado native from Manitou Springs and my family has pioneer roots in northeast Colorado from the 1800s. I live in Summit Cove with my daughter, Kellie and my older daughter is a freshman at the University of Oregon. Summit offers the healthy life style I enjoy and a wonderful community to raise my daughters. During my time in Summit County I have also worked for the Town of Breckenridge and for the Colorado Division of Emergency Management. I am a graduate of University of Colorado at Denver and hold a graduate degree in Criminal Justice.

Heidi Swartzloff grew up in Michigan where she graduated from Michigan State University in 2008. She studied Communications and Public Relations. She originally moved to Colorado in the fall of 2008 to spend a season skiing and working before pursuing a career. She realized she loved the mountains and was fortunate enough to have the opportunity to begin a career right here in Summit County. Heidi works for a Public Relations firm based in Frisco. She also teaches dance classes at Alpine Dance Academy and is a youth mentor with the SOS program. Always looking for ways to get involved in the community, to be able to help locally and nationally, Heidi believes rotary will be an excellent fit for her.
