Four Way Testby Gilchrist, JulieanneFour Way Test

A big thank you to all of you who have volunteered your time for the 4-Way Test sessions at the Thursday 19 & Friday 20 April. Your support is much appreciated.

However, we need more volunteers for the afternoon sessions on Thursday 19 and Friday 20 Apr p.m. We do not want to have to cancel the event. Please contact Liz Wickert at RotaryLiz@gmail. participate. Thank you so much.

Rotary Mentor Programby Gilchrist, Julieanne*

The Membership Committee has recently created a Mentor Program, with the goal of this program induction opportunity for new members.

The Mentor program will pair seasoned Rotarians with new Rotarians to share past experiences a is believed that these mentoring efforts will have a significant impact on how quickly a new Rotar and improve our overall membership attrition rate.

A Mentor becomes an advisor, an influential senior sponsor, but mostly, a mentor becomes a new

New Bios

by Peggy Beeler

Maggie Ducayet grew up in New Jersey and has a twin brother. She attended college in Buffalo, NY, where she studied Nursing, Social Work and Early Childhood Education. There she met her husband and started a family. Her husband and 4 children have lived in Germany, N.Y., France, Chicago, Houston and have been in the US for 10 years. She taught pre-school for 13 years and was a school administrator for 3 years. She has done grief counseling before retiring and moving to Summit County. She has worked in Outreach in Sierrita with the Red Door and Summit in Honduras. She is looking forward to being a member of our club and more involved with World Community Service and our local Community.

Community Dinner Update.....

by Deborah Hage

This was repair week. Doug Schwartz, culinary chef for CMC and volunteer chef for us, installed kitchen. Peter Dunn is doing the electrical hook up and Liz Wickert also came by to fix the coffee here is Betty Naaftz, who first volunteered in May 2009 and has come almost every Tuesday since volunteering at the dinner, she takes all of our dishcloths and aprons home to wash every week. W such a varied and talented set of volunteers. It takes more then cooks, servers and dishwashers dinner going!

Dinner last night was wonderful! C hef David Scott and his crew from Keystone (Vail Resorts) prepa Cacciatore that was the best I had ever tasted. Olives, artichoke hearts...delicious. the veggies we of fresh baby carrots, patty pan squash, okra, plus swimming in sweet butter! I tell you the best dinn County last night was at the Elks Lodge. Volunteers were from Rotary who had a very relaxing ever 227 (24 children) people fed.

Number of meals served to date: 45,706, 10,157 served to children
