She presented two popular sessions at Saturday's District Assembly. Other clubs can learn a lot from Peggy, as she succeeded in earning us the Club Growth Award for large clubs this past year. Peggy also organized a successful party for new members, sponsors, and mentors. Sunday's party was graciously hosted by Joni Ellis at her beautiful home. Thanks Joni & Peggy!

Community Dinner Update.....

by Deborah Hage

Last week I blithely predicted a drop in numbers only to be confounded this week with 120 more diners than we had the week before! Boneless pork loin was on sale for a bulk price of $1.87 a lb so we decided to have roast pork with mushroom gravy and mashed potatoes. Since I was not thinking we would have so many participants I thought 50 lbs would be enough....it wasn't quite....so we filled in with lamb stew and the last 20 or so people who came did not even know pork loin had been on the menu! Volunteers came from Synagogue of the Summit and Lord of the Mountains. We served 286 (67 children).
