President's Message

by Ellis, Joni

To rafters, a hand in the air with index finger circling means it's time to eddy out – catch the next re-group with river friends, plan your next move. River eddies provide the necessary time to ga slow down, or chill with friends.

After boating two quite technical rivers in Montana and Idaho, it occurred to me that Rotarians al chill with friends, gather our thoughts. Arrive early on Tuesday to chat with someone new (many 7:00), drive to Denver with a group going to a District function, attend our monthly Happy Hour, friend, volunteer at the BBQ, sign up to be a reading buddy, or serve at the Community Dinner. of our service projects or take charge of a fundraiser. Like a raft in the rivers' current, before lor journey called Rotary. Eddy out. It's a rewarding adventure.

If anyone else missed last Tuesday morning scroll down to Jim Brook's meeting update. Thank y informed.

Last Week at Rotary

by Brook, Jim

With President Joni Ellis on a river somewhere in Montana for the week, Past President Bill Reetz kept everything and even kept us on time. We were pleased to welcome many guests including one of our generation scholarship recipients Kelly Berger, introduced by Darcy Rehn, and to learn that she graduated this spring and will soon begin her first paying job as an elementary school teacher in the French Trench's ticket was drawn in the weekly raffle, winning him $135, but he didn't pull the ace of hearts; more than $2300 is still there for you next week. Bob Follett introduced speaker Gary Grappo who kept everyone's full attention talking in depth without notes or slides on the Keystone Center and spent many years in the senior diplomatic corps, mostly in the middle east, and he's agreed to come to speak on that topic. Bruce Butler had a pretty good line up of members signing up for BBQ this week with the updated roster, so please come prepared to volunteer for more on August 10 and

Car Raffle Update

by Katz, Stephanie

Thanks to everyone who has turned in their white ticket envelopes and/or generously given their money we finally own the car and have covered all our incidental expenses. A special thanks goes to Sha who handedly sold 74 tickets last weekend. From this point forward, every ticket sold supports our Rotary. Remember, your completed white envelopes are due to be turned in to Tom this Tuesday morning.

The raffle committee has a special request. Would those who took pictures of the car at the 4th of July get those photos to Tom Coolidge (tetc33@gmail.com) as soon as possible? If we can get 100 Ford will give us a substantial reimbursement for our publicity expenses.

There are only three weekends plus the BBQ left to sell tickets. Let's make them the most successful. McElhattan stands up and asks for volunteers, raise those hands up high and help him out. Hallelujah and sisters.
