Rotary Picnic

by Clement, Ann Morrison

A Rotary Picnic will be held at the Edelweiss Cabin Picnic on Sunday, August 26, 2012

Ann Clement and David Matthews bring back the Summit Rotary tradition of a picnic at their rustic Boulder Creek Road.

The picnic is from 11:00-3:00. Lunch will be around noon or so.

Those that want can hike to Boulder Lake (about 2-3 hours), can fish along the way or just hike to the picnic. If you want to do this hike, you should leave the cabin about 10:00. David will guide the trip.

The cabin is about 12 miles North on Highway 9 from Silverthorne, and 1 1/2 miles west on CR 101 Road. Specific directions will be given later.

Rotarians can sign up for appetizers, salads, main courses or desserts. Ann and David will have a picnic (plates, napkins, silverware, cups, etc.)

The cabin has no electricity or water, so all must bring your own beverages in a cooler with ice, and be ready to serve- please no preparations.

Bring fold up chairs. We have some tables and chairs but not enough.

We do have an outhouse! There is no cell phone coverage but the phone at the cabin is 513 1678

Children, guests, etc. are all welcome. Please no dogs.

A sign up sheet will come around in a few weeks.

Any questions, call Ann at 970 389 0031 or almclement@comcast.net
