President's Message

by Ellis, Joni

"To Do" Lists come in all shapes and sizes. Sometimes they consist of a couple notes scrawled or times it is an electronic list on an I-Phone. Rotary's "To Do" List includes eradicating polio, providing a way out of poverty. Anything but easy, but that's how Rotarians are. Projects large and small graders, and we supply schools with text books in Guatemala (with the help of The Rotary Founda

What does the "To Do" List mean at the Club level? On Oct. 6, nearly 30 members of our Club were participants ready to help guide our club forward, thank you in advance. Your efforts do not go unnoticed. Joni @ 389-3255

Last Week at Rotary

by Brook, Jim

Last Week at Rotary

Lynn Myers has been a busy lady - in addition to once again serving as Chair for the Parade interior decoration in this year's event which continues this weekend. District Governor Mike Klier with a donation toward Paul Harris recognition. You still have time to sign up to be part of the Su October 9 or part of the Club's long term visioning session Saturday October 6 - see Joni Ellis. L drawing, but the Ace of Spades and the big prize of more than $800 eluded him. Our favorite Aus win for the Summit High School ladies rugby team, and a great weekend of homecoming activitie Assembly program, we learned more about what our very active Club is doing, who's leading our members filled in a "Service Profile" sheet to indicate their Rotary interests - if you missed it, loo Brook or Joel Cochran to help you give and get the best from your time as a Rotarian. Consider Youth Exchange (Jim Brook), Troop Support (Al & Liz Wickert), Fundraising (Judi LaPoint) an
