

START YOUR GIFT SHOPPING EARLY AND HELP POLIO PLUS

First Friday Art Walk

The businesses below have partnered with the Downtown Topeka and Topeka South Rotary Clubs to donate up to 50% of their sales on October 6, 2017 to PolioPlus. These funds will then be matched by the District, Gates Foundation and Rotary International matches to maximize our efforts.

118 SE 8th Avenue (Historic Crane Building)

Owner: Kymm Ledbetter

Bursting with creativity, Prairie Glass Studio offers creative gifts, home décor and one-of-a-kind jewelry. Featuring a sunflower-themed glass art collection.

Prairie Glass Studio is known for the perfect environment to host birthday parties, staff retreats, family gatherings, etc. or just come with a few friends and take a class.

The place itself is fun and instantly puts you in a good mood as soon as you walk in the door. Come in and be greeted by the dogs, Daisy and Mia.

WEBSITE: prairieglassart.com

725 S. Kansas Avenue

Owner: Alicia VanWalleghem

Leaping Llamas offers a variety of avenues for everyone to engage in art. From purchasing one-of-a-kind pieces created by Kansas-connected artists to taking classes as they discover the artisan from within, people of all ages and skill level can take a piece of art home with them. Classes are offered on a weekly basis to artists of all ages.

Patrons can look forward to purchasing ceramics, paintings of all types, jewelry, textiles, graphic novels, bead mosaics, floor clothes, metal work, letterpress, stationary and much more. Each artist is connected to the State of Kansas in some way.

WEBSITE: leapingllamas.com