About our District Governor

(Copied from the 5790 Webpage)

John grew up in Bristol, Virginia-Tennessee, where his ancestors go back to among the original settlers of that area. He received his BS degree from the University of Tennessee in Knoxville along with a commission in the U.S. Air Force. Later he completed graduate studies at West Texas A&M university.

He served on active duty with the Air Force during the Vietnam War, and afterwards entered the corporate world, first working for Eastern Air Lines in Miami, then with Ryder System who moved his family to Plano, Texas. In 1990 John and his wife opened a business in Colorado Springs only to close it two years later and move to Amarillo where he joined with business associates in a distribution/logistics consulting enterprise. In 1994 they moved to Arlington where he still works as a part-time distribution consultant.

After release from active duty John joined the Air Force Reserve and served for 16 years in air terminal management throughout the world. John is a recognized genealogist and published author on his families' history. In addition, he has been actively involved with the Boy Scouts for over 40 years. Having earned his Eagle Scout while growing up, he held many different volunteer Scouting positions including District Chairman. He has been recognized with top Scouting awards, including the prestigious Silver Beaver and Cliff Dochterman Service Award.

Over 40 years ago John met and married his wife Claire in Wichita Falls, Texas. Today Claire teaches Family & Consumer Sciences at Lamar High School and in her spare time coaches the junior varsity cheerleaders. John and Claire are both active in their church.

In the early 1990's John joined the Rotary club of Colorado Spring sand was a member for the two years they lived there. In 2000 he joined the Rotary Club of Arlington North and has served on numerous committees.

He has been honored as his club's Rotarian of the Year and his wife Claire has been inducted as an honorary member of the club. John has served as Assistant Governor for three years and recognized as the Assistant Governor of the year. He twice traveled with other District 5790 Rotarians to Mexico on a friendship exchange and helped the Rotarians of Leon deliver over 800 wheelchairs. John and Clair are both Paul Harris Fellows and John is a Benefactor to The Rotary Foundation.

They have two children: a daughter Jeanne who teaches third grade in Euless and a son who is deceased.
