

Our busy 2011 performance year draws to a close on Saturday 10 December with a truly beautiful concert at the Melbourne Recital Centre.

In this performance, acclaimed British violinist/conductor Anthony Marwood will lead the Orchestra of the Academy with repertoire by Beethoven and R. Strauss and will play the solo in the Australian premiere of Steven Mackey's haunting violin concerto, Beautiful Passing, a concerto that was composed specially for him.

In appreciation of your ongoing support in 2011 we would like to offer you and your members two tickets for the price of one for this special performance.

BEETHOVEN Symphony No. 1 in C major Op. 21
STRAUSS Metamorphosen for 23 Solo Strings
MACKEY Beautiful Passing concerto for violin and orchestra Australian premiere

ANTHONY MARWOOD violin/director
STEVEN MACKEY conductor
ORCHESTRA OF THE ACADEMY

Premium Reserve	$80 full	A Reserve	$50 full
	$55 Seniors		$35 Seniors
	$40 Concession		$25 Concession

To take advantage of this offer, please contact the Melbourne Recital Centre Box Office by calling (03) 9699 3333 or by visiting melbournerecital.com.au and use the promo code BEAUTIFUL to book your tickets*

We look forward to seeing you there.

Kind Regards,

Sue Sweetland
Audience Liaison

* Booking fees may apply#