

Since the first Book Fair sales of second hand books to Dealers and the Annual Book Fair has contributed:

- more than $50,000 of Fiction and Non fiction books to Albert Park College
- $5,748 Payment for half-scholarships for Graduate Diploma in Adolescent Health & Welfare (prevention of youth suicide) 2 year course
- $3,292 to support St Kilda Youth Kitchen Garden Programme
- $5,000 in total scholarships to Albert Park, Middle Park and Port Melbourne Primary schools for transition scholarships
- $5,000 for a literacy program at Albert Park Primary School
- In excess of $15,000 to Inner South Community Health Services assisting individuals in our community with items ranging from washing machines, beds, wheelchairs, footwear, cooking utensils and even underwear. All of these items have made a huge difference to those in need.
- $2,400 for Prahran Mission Stables Art Studio and Gallery.
- $5,000 towards kitchen equipment at the HEAT premises of Hospitality Employment and Training-a Port Melbourne training program in hospitality skills for unemployed and disengaged young people
- $3,341 to purchase chairs for St Silas Anglican Church hall Albert Park for regular usage by Autism Australia
- We have also Donated 1,000's of books to Opportunity Shops and old peoples homes in our local area plus Albert Park Primary school for their local Fete

The list just continues of those groups and individuals in our area that have benefited from the sale of books and hopefully will continue to do so.
