

HEAT is on Gala Dinner

Friday 21 October 2011

featuring:

Guy Grossi

Ian Curley

Karen Martini

Andrew Blake

Arnold Greiner

Matthew Dawson

Empowering and Training Youth
SKYS the limit in meeting their full potential heat

HOSPITALITY EMPLOYMENT
AND TRAINING

Corporate Tables

skys

www.skys.org.au

Corporate Tables

10 guests per table - $3,000*

 Booking fees and visa charges may apply*

Purchase by calling (03) 9534 3685 or visit www.skys.org.au

Unique client, staff dining opportunity

Top Australian Chefs

Brand positioning - Community engagement

Providing industry experience for disengaged youth

Providing ongoing education training and support for youth

Opportunity

Priority Seating	Be close to the action - your guests will have the best seats in the house
Company Branding	Company table signage, MC announcements, logo recognition
Visiting Chef	Chefs will be working in the kitchen and mingling amongst guest. Corporate Tables have priority visits
Plating up with a Chef	Corporate tables go in the draw to nominate a guest to plate up with a chef in the Encore Kitchen, your clients, staff, guests have the chance to work in the kitchen with one of our master chefs*
HEAT students	HEAT students, current, past will work amongst Encore staff to give your clients, staff and friends a real life experience of their training- expertise will vary*

 Subject to availability on the night*

Why I support SKYS and HEAT

'Since 2005, it has not only a great honour to be the patron of the HEAT program; it is also great fun. I constantly have the opportunity to visit HEAT and experience first hand the value and the significance of HEAT's work.'

Patron Guy Grossi

- › SKYS has 25 years experience
- › Annually 500 youth in SKYS programs
- › HEAT was established in 2005
- › SKYS applies innovative programs to engage
- › 80% of HEAT Students go onto further education or employment

HEAT is currently looking for funding to continue to ensure disadvantage youth reach their full potential. Contact us at (03) 9534 3685.