

Why walk from Melbourne to Canberra when there's a perfectly good bus service?

The Rotary Club of Albert Park

Invites you to

An Evening with Richard Goss

Richard will speak of his motivations and experiences on the Camino de Frances in September 2013. It is the longest pilgrimage walk in existence, starting in France and finishing in Spain over a distance of 800 kms.

This will also be a farewell to Richard and Mary before they move to Byron Bay to begin the next happy journey of their lives.
