John Belisle conducted the meeting in the absence of President Celeste – good job John!

Henry Beck, State Treasurer and Constitutional Officer for the State of Maine, shared with the fellowship that he is elected by the Legislature. His primary duties as treasurer is cash management, trust funds, bonds, and unclaimed property. He also pointed out that currently in the operating account there is a balance of 1.6 billion dollars. He did point out that how he invests funds is governed by law. Very interesting presentation.
