Vol. 70

THANK YOU, PAST PRESIDENT RANDY SMITH! President Debi Boughton presented a clock to him today, thanking him for his service as Club President 2018-19.

8/17/19 R.E.A.L. TRAINING REPORT: Pictured from left, Roy and Ralph spoke about membership and Jeff spoke about the goal of $144/person per year Foundation giving and a fundraiser to be held for Polio Plus.

WATERTON GLACIER INTERNATIONAL PEACE PARK: Pres. Debi spoke about Rotarian involvement in the world's first International Peace Park established in 1932.

UNITED WAY OF NORTHEAST MISSOURI

Executive Director Bill Castles spoke about the 2020 campaign set to kick off on Thursday, September 12 at 6 p.m. at White Oaks Barn, 23255 Missouri Hwy. 11, Kirksville. The campaign goal this year is $175,000. Castle, who hails from Dallas Center Iowa (population 1,623), spoke about the many donations involved in setting up their new office, in particular the 750 sq. ft. office space provided rent and utilities free by Bank Midwest (through Kevin Butner). Bill spoke at length about the Oasis program supported by the United Way. He concluded with a nice PowerPoint presentation of photos and newspaper clippings from years ago, including this one of Dale "Mad Dog" Schenewerk.

Pictured from left in right photo are Executive Director Bill Castles, United Way of Northeast Missouri President Luke Callaghan and Rotarian Dale Schenewerk who introduced the speaker.

50-50 Drawing: John Davis did not pull the ace of spades; pot now up to $1,629.
