NEW MEMBER WELCOMED: Elizabeth Gregory, assistant director at MACC-Kirksville, was inducted today by President Debi Boughton (left). She was sponsored by Jeff Romine, also pictured.

ROTARY MINUTE: What two club members sang with the Community Chorus on Monday? The answer was Scott Beard and Marie Murphree.

FLAG FUNDRAISING PROJECT: Chair Jeff Romine said that forms for donations will be available soon. He said Larry Attebery is working on 50 metal bases for the flags. The goal is to place 100 flags. President Debi said the Board decided this will be our only fundraiser for the rest of the year and into Roy Noe's year.

DECEMBER BIRTHDAYS AND CLUB ANNIVERSARIES, including 58 years of service by Ray Klingensmith, were read by Acting Secretary Erick Hanson.

KIRKSVILLE ARTS ASSOCIATION: Linda Treasure, KAA president since 2016, spoke about progress made in construction of their new building on a site traded with the City for their old site. She is pictured with Angela Schultz who is spearheading fundraising for a third floor conference room to be named for local 100-year-old artist Clara Straight. (They are $10,000 short of their $50,000 goal. Fundraising includes a Straight painting to be raffled this Saturday. Dan Vogt is donating 100% of proceeds of a Wooden Nickel spaghetti dinner any Sunday-Thursday.) Linda Treasure said the Arts Association building itself is named for Sue Ross who passed away just weeks before the December 2, 2016 fire which destroyed their old building. The main gallery will be named for Pat Ellebracht; upper gallery, for Ron and Elsie Gaber; and the downstairs meeting room, for the late Travis Freeman. Pictured from left are Linda Treasure and Angela Schultz. Not pictured is Barbara Smith-Mandell who introduced them.
