Vol. 70

IN FOND MEMORY OF FRANK COLTON - 11/15/35 - 12/23/19 We send our condolences to Linda and the rest of the family. Frank was a loyal member of our club for many years before moving to Kansas. Linda said he enjoyed reading the Serving Tray each week - keeping up with our club!

FLAG PROJECT KICK OFF: Jeff Romine had forms at the entrance table. Bill Lovegreen said the $2,100 seed money has been raised. More on the project and a team photo in next week's bulletin.

ROTARY MINUTE: International Convention will begin in Honolulu, Hawaii on June 6, 2020.

ROTARY BIRTHDAY PARTY, FEBRUARY 23

AND POLIO ERADICATION: Matt Eichor (not pictured) spoke about Rotarian Carl Chinnery and the Chinnery (Fundraising) Challenge. Matt said Carl and his four brothers became polio victims in 1942. Matt later showed us a 10-minute video on polio. Ray Klinginsmith said Carl will be our featured speaker at the party. DG Marc Horner will also attend. Ralph Cupelli spoke and Dale Schenewerk announced an added incentive in the Chinnery Challenge. For every $100 raised for Polio Plus between now and the party, you will receive one entry for a Paul Harris Fellowship. If we raise $5,000, we will award five fellowships. Jeff Romine said you can donate on line or give him a check. Pictured from left are Dale, Ralph, Ray & Jeff. (See party invitation attached to cover email for details.)

THANKS! Jeff Romine and Randy Smith spent 3.5 hours recently organizing our storage facility including the addition of shelves. Check out the before and after photos. They did a great job, didn't they?!
