FLATS/PLAYSCAPE WORKDAY, SATURDAY, AUGUST 22, beginning at 7 am. Need a few wheel barrows and lots of shovels for trail work. Randy said he and David Nichols built bridge frames last Thursday in David's workshop.

DUCK DASH: Randy said they have $2,900 in sponsorships. KYOU has promised advertising as a donation. K-LIFE has 52 college students to sell adoptions. Walmart has agreed to allow sales south of their north door. Randy has not heard from Hy-Vee yet. Due to an October conflict the Duck Dash will be moved to November. Details will follow.

GREG GORDON IS PAUL HARRIS FELLOW PLUS EIGHT! Foundation Chair Jeff Romine (left) said this means Greg Gordon (center) has donated $9,000 to the Rotary Foundation. President Roy Noe is also pictured.

DISTRICT GRANT APPLICATION FOR SOCCER FIELD has been submitted.

FLAGS: Jeff said we will have 115 flags for Labor Day. Bill L. suggested, as an added incentive for new buyers, extending coverage for all of 2020 plus 2021 (one year) or 2022 (2 years).

KIRKSVILLE R-III SUPERINTENDENT DR. ROBERT A. WEBB spoke about the impact the COVID-19 pandemic has had on the school system and its students. He said classes will resume on Tuesday, August 25th, at Level 2 for many students. Elementary students will attend school five days a week, while other students (at Level 2) will attend two to three days a week. Dr. Webb described precautions which will be taken to make it a safe experience. He said each level will be revisited after two weeks. Dr. Webb also spoke about sports including live streaming of home games and fan restrictions. He invited us to email him <rwebb@kirksville.k12.MO.us> for more information. He said he has set up a dashboard. Dr. Webb is pictured with Rotarian David Nichols (right) who introduced him. See also Webb's biographical information attached to cover email.

50-50 Drawing: Jeff Romine did not pull the ace of spades; pot now up to $1,385.
