June 16
2021
Vol. 71

FOOD DONATION: Pictured is Dana Delaware donating 170 boxes of corn muffin mix to PAC. Sheila Swafford, the director of PAC, would like to express her appreciation to our Rotary Club for taking on this project to address food insecurity in Adair County. “Wow” was her comment on this month’s donation.

FLAGS! Jeff thanked John Dungan, Ron Brand, Justin Wiles, Matt Eichor, and Jessica Wiles (and others?) for placing 25 bases in 3-4 days! Flags go up again June 30-July 1.

GLOBAL GRANT FOR PPE IN HONDURAS: President Roy said District 6040 raised and delivered $169,000 for this important effort. (Our club contributed $1,000.)

C-SPAN: ITS NON-PARTISAN MISSION

Matt Eichor introduced Joel Bacon of C-SPAN speaking to us today from Denver via Zoom.

Joel joined C-SPAN in the summer of 2013 and has served in various capacities including producing “Washington Journal” which is C-SPAN’s signature call-in show. (After eight years in Washington D.C., he recently moved to Denver, Colorado.)

C-SPAN has been in operation since 1979, providing unfiltered content for 42 years funded by local cable TV providers with no government money. C-SPAN puts you in the room to view events in their entirety in order for you to make up your own mind. It is a “Window on Washington” with no editing or commentary while presenting multiple viewpoints. It provides factual, neutral and trusted programming through TV at C-SPAN, C-SPAN 2, C-SPAN 3, on-line at C-SPAN.org, on Twitter, Instagram, YouTube, C-SPAN Radio, and via e-mailed newsletters. Also check out other topics at AmericanHistoryTV@C-SPAN.org. and BookTV@C-SPAN.org.

Joel said he will provide a follow-up email that has resources to keep us up to date which will also include two links, one to receive a book free to our Rotary Club with colorful photos taken in Congress.

50-50 Drawing: Dana Delaware did not pull the ace of spades; pot now up to $594.
