FOOD DRIVE NEXT WEEK: Beginning with September, the monthly food drive will begin again. In August, the Pantry of Adair county (PAC) received over 500 ham shanks from the Central Food Bank of Missouri. PAC is distributing the ham with great northern white beans and corn bread muffin mix as a meal. So, this month's item for Rotary's food drive is either a bag of great northern white beans or a box of corn muffin mix. Let's see if the club can again collect an amazing amount of these items.

FLAGS: Jeff said flags should go up today through Friday and stay up through September 13-14. He announced a special promotion through mid-October: A free flag set up for Veteran's Day with a two-year subscription for 2022-2023.

BOOKS! Debi announced five books purchased for the Adair County Public Library: Visual Encyclopedia by the Smithsonian; Lonely Planet's Guide to Life: Wisdom from the World's Cultures; Amazing World Atlas: Bringing our World to Life by Ward, Your Future is Bright by Finkle; and Sparring with Smokin' Joe: Joe Frazier's Epic Battle Rivalry with Ali by Lewis B. Frazier.

ARTS AT TRUMAN/LYCEUM: Dale Schenewerk introduced our two TSU speakers today, Dawn Howd and Dr. Steve Parsons.

DAWN HOWD announced that the 2021-2022 Lyceum season starts in January with Rhonda Vincent performing on January 15 (tickets on sale in December) followed by "Take Three Trio" on February 7, "The Step Crew" on March 25 and concluding on April 8 with a Holman Family speaker. If you have questions, please visit lyceum.Truman.edu or email LyceumSeries@truman.edu, Marie Murphree <mmurphree@truman.edu> or Dawn Howd <dhowd@truman.edu>.

After Dawn spoke, DR. STEPHEN PARSONS, Dean of Truman's School of Arts and Letters, spoke about Fall 2021 events in Arts, Classical and Modern Languages, English and Linguistics, Music and Theatre. (See program attached to cover email.)

50-50 Drawing: Barbara Smith-Mandell not pull the ace of spades; pot stands at $1,082.
