BOARD MEETING UPDATE: President Amanda said the finalized slate of 2022/23 officers will be presented next week. We have a memorandum of understanding with Truman for an International Student. We will have a freezer of meat fundraiser in the Spring. Everyone will be billed $50 for 10 tickets for a drawing. We will sponsor two Girls State participants.

BUDDY PACK VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: Teresa Ross said she needs one more volunteer for distributing buddy packs on January 6 from 7-9 am at their 503 N. Main Street location. Two volunteers are needed for January 24. If you can help, contact Teresa <tross@sharefoodbringhope.org>.

2022 FLAG SPONSORSHIPS SOUGHT: Please contact Bill Lovegreen <bill.lovegreen@sbcglobal.net> if you can provide $300 as seed money for flags and poles.

THE SALVATION ARMY: Dale Schenewerk introduced fellow member Lt. Brian Hoscheit (pictured). He and his wife, the parents of three children, began serving their first appointment ever as pastors here in Kirksville in June of 2018. He spoke about the many services the Salvation Army provides to the community. He thanked us for our participation in bell ringing this Saturday. He said they hope to raise $36,000 this holiday season and Rotary Bell Ringing Day is always their best day.

UPDATE ON BELL RINGING FROM CHAIR DANA DELAWARE: Dana has a few slots to fill and hopes to have a volunteer to cover the 5-6 pm for the North Star club at Hobby Lobby. They need our help this year. Contact Dana <ddelawar@truman.edu> if you can help out. Dana will provide an updated schedule within a day or two.

50-50 Drawing: Server Barbie did not pull the ace of spades; pot now up to $158.
