Vol. 72

PAUL HARRIS FELLOW! At our March 29 Soup Social, Linda Eichor, wife of Matt Eichor, received a Paul Harris Fellowship from Foundation Chair Jeff Romine. As a multiple recipient of this fellowship, Linda Eichor named this Paul Harris Fellowship for her recently deceased mother, Audrey E. Cross. (More photos from the event are on Page 2)

MARCH FOOD DRIVE: Dana said we collected just over 5 dozen boxes of cereal (61 boxes). As always, PAC very much appreciated our monthly donations to addressing food insecurity in Adair County.

MATCHING FUNDS: Dana Delaware said if we raise $1,000 for Shoes for Orphan Souls, the committee will match $500 of that sum. Also, Ron and Elsie Gaber are seeking to raise funds for the Ray Klingensmith Distinguished Service Awards and will match up to $2,500 donated by September 1, 2022. Checks should be made payable to Kirksville Rotary Charitable Fund with "Shoes" or "Ray K. Award" in memo line and mailed c/o Jeff Romine, 500 College Park Drive, Kirksville, MO 63501.

2021 GROUP STUDY EXCHANGE TO ZAMBIA & MALAWI

Past District Governor Marc Horner has been a Rotarian for over 27 years and is a member of the Rotary Club of Kansas City. He was the team leader on this exchange and spoke about and shared photos of Zambia and Malawi, countries located in southern Africa.

For details about PDG Horner and his team, see attachment to cover email.

50-50 Drawing: Dana Delaware did not pull the ace of spades; pot now up to $800.

Guests:
