Dec. 28, 2022 - Volume #73

FOUNDATION GIVING: Jeff was accepting checks for 2022 giving today. Jeff Romine said there may have been more than one error in individual's giving record presented at the November meeting. Let him know if there were any other errors. Foundation donations included with dues payments have now been turned over to the Foundation.

FLAGS: Jeff said 10 more flag subscriptions given as Christmas gifts have been received since November. That brings us to a total of 340 flags.

2022 MISSOURI STATE FAIR QUEEN ELSIE KIGAR: Elsie, daughter of Scotland County Rotarian Alisa Kigar and Jim Kigar, followed in the footsteps of her cousin, 2010 Fair Queen Megan Westhof, and became one of the youngest Missouri State Fair Queens, having just turned 17 on July 5. She spoke about her experiences as State Fair Queen with events still occurring today. She is a very busy young woman not only as a Scotland County high school senior carrying 12 college credit courses but also operating her own butchered beef business. She will attend University of Missouri next fall, majoring in Agricultural Business Management and minoring in Animal Sciences. Elsie is pictured above with President Elect Melissa Stuart who conducted the meeting in President Marie's absence and below with various family members and friends, Ron Gaber and Elsie Gaber (Elsie Kigar's namesake).
