LITERACY COMMITTEE READINGS: Debi Boughton said she still has some spots available for reading at Mary Immaculate and Faith Lutheran schools on Tuesday, March 21 and Wednesday, March 22. Contact her if you would like to read <boughtondebi@gmail.com>. She will be sending an email soon to those who have already signed up.

SHOES FOR ORPHAN SOULS CAMPAIGN started today. Dana said the club's goal is $2,000.

KIRKSVILLE SCHOOLS SUPERINTENDENT ROBERT "BOB" WEBB

In Ramey Weichelt's introduction we learned Bob is a Wyoming native who is happy to call Missouri his second home. He earned his bachelor's degree from Black Hills University and two advanced degrees in Education Leadership from the University of Wyoming. Bob has been working in Education since 1985. He has five children and 13 grandchildren. Bob Webb said his vision for Kirksville and new mission is to partner with community members and parents to Engage, Educate, and Empower students. He welcomed our participation in his mission. Bob is pictured in left photo with Club President Marie Murphree.
