EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR CAROLYN CHRISMAN KIRKSVILLE REGIONAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT INCORPORATED (K-REDI)

In Dale Schenewerk's introduction, we learned that Carolyn has received numerous awards for her work in economic development and has also served in other capacities. She is past president of the Greater Missouri Leadership Foundation, a statewide women's leadership organization, and has also been president of the Kirksville Kiwanis Club, is a member of the Kirksville Area Chamber of Commerce Board, and also serves in her local church. She is married to Jason Chrisman and they have four children under the age of eight. After 11 years serving as K-REDI executive director, Carolyn will be leaving her post on July 7. As announced on April 28, K-REDI is looking for her replacement. Attached to the cover email is a job description and information on applying for the position, which begins no later than July 3, 2023. Pictured from left: Carolyn Chrisman and President Marie Murphree.

50-50 Drawing: Larry Whitney did not pull the ace of spades; pot now up to $505.
