RED CROSS DISASTER PROGRAM SPECIALIST JOHN DUNGAN ON TORNADO RELIEF

Dale Schenewerk reported on John's background before assuming his current position in July of 2017. John, who holds a Masters of Divinity degree, served 20 years in full-time ministry and then seven years as Executive Director of the United Way of Northeast Missouri. He is married to Dr. Jennifer Jesse who will be a Truman Professor Emerita as of June 1 of this year. John spoke about recovery efforts after an EF-3 tornado struck Wynne, Arkansas on March 31 which resulted in 26 injuries and four deaths, as well as extensive property damage. Wynne, Arkansas has a population of about 8,000 and is located 100 miles northeast of Little Rock, Arkansas. John said that the Red Cross needs our support very much. He said we should not donate goods but money instead. John is pictured with Club President Marie Murphree.

50-50 Drawing: Randy Smith did not pull the ace of spades; pot now up to $649.
