FOOD DRIVE EXTENDED: Collection of soup for the Food Pantry has been extended to next week since we had a low turnout for today's meeting. (Kirksville received 9-11 inches of snow as of 1/9/24!)

NEW MEMBER AARON THOMAS was inducted today by President Melissa Stuart (left). Aaron, sponsored by Elizabeth Gregory, is a licensed practical nurse with Complete Family Medicine. Welcome, Aaron!

THE SOUP SOCIAL is scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 30 at the Dukum. A sign-up sheet was passed around. No doubt it will be passed around again next week.

COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT TOYS FOR THE HUMANE SOCIETY

President Melissa and Debi Boughton reported that the dog toy service project was lots of fun! Ramey and Chris are pictured with the dozens of braided dog toys produced today.

Ramey Weichelt gave a little history of the Adair County Humane Society, who will be the recipient of the dog toys made today. ACHS started as a service project conducted by Girl Scout Cadette Troop 166 of Kirksville in 1971. ACHS was incorporated as a non-profit organization in 1972.
