DEPUTY SECRETARY NEEDED Secretary Ramey announced she will be on maternity leave from October 23, 2025 until February 1, 2026. New member Susan Knox has agreed to be co-deputy secretary, meaning if one other person volunteers to be a deputy secretary during Ramey's maternity leave she would be willing to support that person. We are still needing someone to volunteer as Deputy Secretary.

MEETINGS: A program committee meeting followed today's meeting. A board meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, July 22 at 5:30 PM at President Elizabeth's office, 115 W. Washington Street.

COMMITTEES: Please advise Ramey about the committees on which you would like to serve. Contact her at <rameyhoehn@gmail.com>.

BINGO AT THE FAIR! See cover email for help still needed. Thanks, Bill Lovegreen, for donating two season passes for volunteers to use. Also, Nate won competition for getting flag subscriptions on Baltimore. He received a $20 Casey's gift card. Dale, Amanda and Tyler also competed.

CAROL KELLUM, VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER OF KTVO TELEVISION

In his introduction Matt Eichor said Carol has been in the broadcasting industry for 35+ years, the last 28 years as Vice President/General Manager. Her career in broadcasting started at CBS in Rockford, IL where she was the Systems Coordinator. During her time at KTVO she tackled the switch from analog to digital and standard definition to high definition. She added CBS to the lineup in addition to ABC and upgraded all technical assets. Most importantly, during those 18 years, she built a solid station with solid leaders. She has provided weather forecasting for Sioux City, IA and recently started a regional newscast in partnership with KHQA in Quincy/Hannibal. The partnership is Tri State Trusted based out of Kirksville.

Carol said she is excited about past growth at KTVO and is looking forward to working with Todd Parkin of Rincon Broadcasting Group. Rincon, a startup company, recently acquired five regional television stations across the midwest from Sinclair Broadcast Group. He has promised local control of station operations. Carol said they
