ACCORDING TO RALPH CUPELLI, HANNIBAL REGIONAL IS OUR SEVENTH ORGANIZATIONAL MEMBER!

SHOES FOR ORPHAN SOULS will be collected at our next meeting, November 5.

UNITED WAY OF NORTHEAST MISSOURI: Tim Mills, President of the local United Way board of directors, said that this is their 70th year! It began in 1955 as the Adair County United Fund, organized by Walter Beard. Six agencies were helped at that time; now it is 10. They are NEMO Senior Citizens Services, The Adair County YMCA, The Salvation Army, Macon Community Child Development Center, Macon Diversified Industries, Hospice of Northeast Missouri, Girl Scouts of Eastern Missouri, Adair County 4-H, Heartland Volunteer of Northeast Missouri Area Agency on Aging program (previously provided by Heartland RSVP) and Scouting America, Great Rivers Council. They also give grants to non-profits. See flyer attached to cover email for details. Mills said they are now at 66% of their $190,000 goal this year.

A club check in the sum of $1,000 was presented by our President Elizabeth Gregory, also a United Way of Northeast Missouri board member, to Tim Mills (left) and Bill Castles (right), pictured above. The funds for this award also came from our flags program.

50-50 Drawing: Ryan Huseman did not pull the ace of spades; pot now up to $299. Happy Bucks $26.25.
