David England

David England

- Sponsor: Chade Shorten
- Classification: Human Resources
- Favorite Rotary Moments: A couple weeks ago when Larry Whitney drew to see if he would win the Ace of Spades and half of the over $3,500 pot or one of three, $300 jokers in the seven cards left; Larry drew none of them.
- Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: Step Granddaughter Hannah Lowrance of Liberty, MO, is getting married. Her recent bridal shower was hosted by her longtime friend Cara Lunsford and her mother Jill at Rotary International President-Elect Larry's home in Kansas.

Dave has raised three stepchildren since 1981 and considers them his own along with several grandchildren.

Nick Ferry

- Sponsor: Jonna Lovenduski
- Classification: Banking
- Favorite Rotary Moment: He enjoys the programs but most of all he believes the Christmas White Elephant exchange is fun to be a part of.
- Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: He's not scared of heights but has only gone flying once courtesy of Randy Smith. He generated so much adrenaline that once the flight ended he took a nap!
- Alliant Bank is an Organizational Member.

Jaqlyne Jackson

Jaqlyne Jackson

- Sponsor: Marie Murphree
- Classification: Advancement
- Favorite Rotary Moment: Assembling chair racks and setting them up with all the chairs in Rotary Park. We ran into a few snags but the group kept working through them because if its worth doing its worth doing right.
- Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: She was a pageant contest baby and competed in pageants as a baby into high school.

Corey Luebbering

- Sponsor: Chade Shorten
- Classification: Medical Research
- Favorite Rotary Moment: Working Bingo at the 2025 NEMO Fair with Ruth Bowers and Melissa Stuart where Corey sang and danced with the country band playing outside while he worked inside.
- Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: Corey was a nationally rated table tennis player in high school.

Kim McClanahan

- Sponsor: Elizabeth Gregory
- Classification: Leasing Specialist
- Favorite Rotary Moment: The Soup Social is so good and NEMO Fair Bingo is so much fun.
- Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: She is a Crazy Cat Lady. She is also a Crazy Kansas City Chiefs fan!

Amanda Selby

- Sponsor: Elizabeth Gregory
- Classification: Hospital Administration
- My Favorite Rotary Moment: Seeing all the clubs come together with the shoes they collected. She enjoys being a representative of the NERMC and enjoys the club meetings. She replaced Patrick Avila.
- Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: Her first job was a 9-1-1 Dispatcher in Kirksville - she's from Novinger.
- NERMC is an Organizational Member

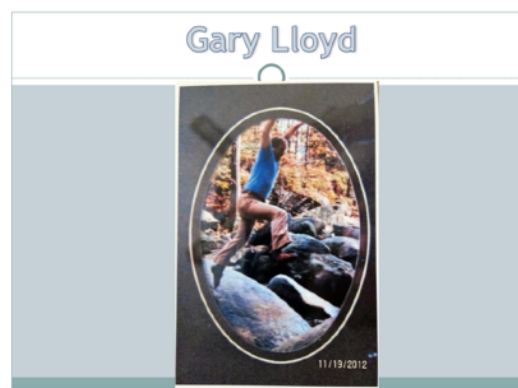

Claire Lloyd

- Sponsor: Ron Gaber
- Classification: US Government Trustee
- Favorite Rotary Moment: When she was honored with a plaque for producing Serving Trays for almost 20 consecutive years.
- Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: While at the Department of Justice, she had her photo in the NY Times Business section. Also Gary took a photo of her and US Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor at a museum in Texas.

Gary Lloyd 25 Years

- Sponsor: Dean Rosebery
- Classification: US Government, FDA
- Favorite Rotary Moment: The 2005 Rotary International Convention in Chicago.
- Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: He visited the World Trade Center in Manhattan on April 4, 1973. He and two colleagues represented the local Food and Administration. At the top of the building was a restaurant called Windows on the World. He and Claire ate Lobster Newburg there ten years later.

Harold Osborn 30 Years

Harold Osborn

- Sponsor: Lou Danfelt
- Classification: Government and Transportation
- Favorite Rotary Moment: Attending the International Convention in New Orleans hosted by International President Ray Klinginsmith. He will always remember visiting Ray and Judy at Rotary International Headquarters in Evanston, IL.
- Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: After he presented a program to the club on Business 63 Highway Improvements, Lew Danfelt came and asked him if he was interested in joining Rotary. On his first meeting day as a new club member Lew was absent, so Ray Klinginsmith, who he had know since working with him in the summer of 1955 in Putnam County, introduced him.

Sandra Fleak 35 Years

- Sponsor: Dale Schenewerk
- Classification: Universities, Business and Accountancy
- Favorite Rotary Moment: Attending RI President Ray Klinginsmith's International Convention in New Orleans plus our club's 90th and 100th Anniversary celebrations.
- Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: She first learned about Rotary in the 1970's from her Rotarian husband Sam when she was his Rotary Ann which was the descriptor for a Rotary wife.

Sandra Fleak

Vern Playle 50 Years

Vern Playle

- Classification: Funeral Director
- Sponsor: Randolph Davis
- Favorite Rotary Moment: Being Club President.
- Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: He had really good times in Rotary and would be attending more except for health issues. He is out of the funeral business.

Charles Baldwin 55 Years

- Sponsor: Frank Baldwin
- Classification: Office Supplies Retail
- Favorite Rotary Moments: The day he relinquished his 25 year perfect attendance and officially turned that honor over to his brother Carl. Charles put in a $2 bill for every year of his perfect attendance. It was a bittersweet moment. Another moment was when his son Todd spoke to the club about his experiences in Iraq.

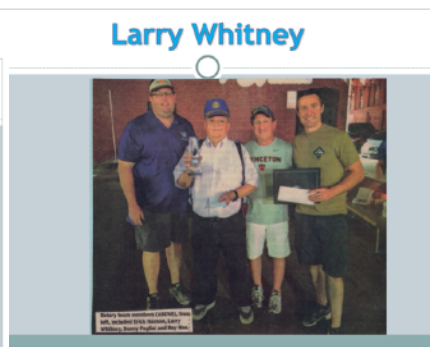

Charles Baldwin

Charles Baldwin

- Favorite Rotary Moments (con't): He was extremely proud on the day he and his brother Carl received the Joint Rotarians of the Year Award.
- Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: He married his Southern Belle, Lois Maggard, at Dauphin Island, AL, on September 5, 2021.

ROTARY MEMBER RECOGNITION (concluding)

Larry Whitney

- Sponsor: Ralph Shain
- Classification: Real Estate
- Favorite Rotary Moments: Being Club President in 1974-75; attending the Rotary International (RI) Convention and Ray Klingensmith's Coronation in New Orleans; Visiting Ray and Judie Klingensmith at RI International Headquarters; and Polio Plus Work.

Larry Whitney (Con't)

Something the Club Probably Doesn't Know: Larry was the club's Sergeant-at-Arms and Social Chairman for umpteen years. He was fired as Social Chair by Ray Klingensmith for spending too much money. He also spiked the first club punch.

Larry is married to Alta and has a son Mark in Kirksville and a son Mike and family in Dusseldorf, Germany. Mike has twin granddaughters are really enjoying Germany.
