Point of No Return – the story

Based on the true story of the British Empire's first boys' prison, this is a riveting play that won a number of awards in 2014. It follows the journey of a small gang of youths who survive Point Puer prison and become Australia's first colonists.

Award-winning playwright, Alaine Beek has organized a professional tour July/August 2018:

- The Potato Shed, Drysdale
- Wyndham Cultural Centre, Werribee
- Capital Theatre, Bendigo
- Frankston Performing Arts Centre, Frankston
- The Melba, Collingwood

This is a locally produced play that has been years in the making and is ready to be taken to the big stage.
