Conversations to Crowdsource Resilience & Resourcefulness

WITH CAROLYN COLLEEN BOSTRACK

IMPORTANT: Your full participation, beginning to end, is required due to the collaborative nature of this event. Your contributions are so valuable.

Let's unite virtually, to engage in generative conversations that activate our hearts and minds. We'll unlock our collective wisdom, to ignite generosity and bring out the best of ourselves.

NOTE: You'll need access to a computer or cell phone with audio and video (preferred) and connect to Zoom.

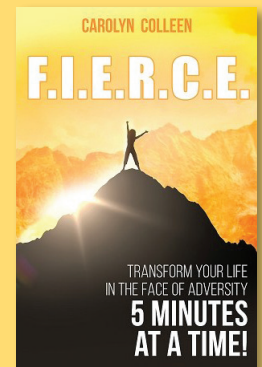

CAROLYN COLLEEN BOSTRACK is a fierce mother of three children, author, international speaker, entrepreneur, and business strategist focused on helping others achieve their goals.

Carolyn is the founder of the FIERCE Academy, an online program that helps women create life strategies that enables them to have the life they dream of—without sacrificing their families, careers, or lifestyles. She is also the author of F.I.E.R.C.E.: Transform Your Life in the Face of Adversity, 5 Minutes at a Time!

With a Ph.D (abd) in Organizational Leadership and Behavior, an MBA, and a BA in Business, Carolyn understands the importance of traditional education. She also knows that intertwining personal experiences allows people to maximize the information from her teachings, presentations, and workshop offerings.

As a dynamic and innovative workplace leader, Carolyn has worked as a Program Manager and Business Development Consultant at Gundersen Health System, Associate Professor at UW-La Crosse, Account Management Executive for Gensler, and a Client Service Executive at UBS Financial Services. She knows how to transition people and processes to achieve the next-level of success while also aligning with organizational objectives.

Carolyn is a guide in conscious collaboration and has helped clients in the for profit and non profit sectors co-create a meaningful, more purposeful future for themselves, their teams and their organizations. She is passionate about collaboration and calling for heart-centered leadership in herself , executives, organizations and our world as we reset post COVID.

IN SERVICE, THE ROTARY LEADERSHIP SERIES COMMITTEE:
