

Dr. Michelle McGrath

ABOUT

Dr. Michelle McGrath is the author of the best selling book - Dropping the F-Bomb, professor, researcher, speaker, non-profit leader, co-creator and lead facilitator at ZENith Retreats, and a youth leadership development expert. She is currently the Executive Director for the Wisconsin Association of School Councils where she facilitates leadership development for thousands of students in Wisconsin. She has led schools, non-profits, national organizations, state championship athletes and world renowned service organizations. She is a Past President for the Madison Downtown Rotary Club and District 6250 Governor Nominee.

HER MESSAGE

With honest, fearless storytelling, Michelle reveals research based, practical strategies that helped her and the thousands of others she has worked with to move forward on their journey and lead. She reflects on her path as a single mom, business leader, and ring master of her own, crazy circus to provide laugh out loud, inspiring stories, sage wisdom, and the silver lining learned from it all. She will entertain and encourage you to lean into your fears, embrace your flaws, and become the joyous, vibrant human you were meant to be. We all desperately seek a life that engages our fullest potential. It's time to live yours. Get ready to be fearless, forward and fulfilled.
