Days that changed my life

Childhood

- Hometown: Markesan, Wisconsin (population: 1,410)
- Grew up sweeping the shop floor of the family business
- Was blessed with hardworking parents and three siblings whom I grew up inseparable with
- Feared nothing and was deemed, “a rebel with a cause”
- Regularly maintained four jobs at once, starting with my first legal job at the age of 14
- High School accomplishments included:
 - Captain of the gymnastics team
 - President of the National Honor Society
 - Perfect score at the Wisconsin State Forensics Meet
 - Outstanding Senior Band Award
 - Recipient of 6 academic scholarships
 - Class President
 - Voted “Most Likely to Become President”
