

MODEL UNITED NATIONS: UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN – LA CROSSE

Living the Values of Rotary International

Joined together by similar values, Model United Nations and Rotary International bring to life a vision for the world where taking action, standing up for beliefs, advocating for real people and working together is the only answer to creating meaningful change

A little bit of history...

- In 1942.....
 - Rotary International clubs from 21 different countries organized a conference in London, England to develop a vision for the world.
- In 1945.....
 - 49 Rotary International members traveled to San Francisco, California to assist in the drafting of the United Nations Charter.
- To this day....
 - Rotary International holds the highest consecutive status with the United Nations as a non-governmental organization.
