Rotary Avenues of Service Awards
2025 Nominations

These awards (one in each category) are presented annually to club projects that best exemplify Rotary ideals in the five avenues of service. A club may nominate more than one project. Please complete a separate form for each nomination. Note that the award is presented for individual projects, not the culmination of all the projects completed by a club.

Past recipients are listed in the 2024 Program.

Check one:

☐ Club Service—For efforts supporting the internal functioning of the club. Typical activities are those that benefit the club's fundraising, attendance, membership growth/retention, or public relations.

☐ Community Service—For the improvement of the quality of life, especially in the areas of community and human development, partnering with diverse cultures, improving relationships, environmental preservation, and partnerships.

☐ International Service—For the advancement of understanding, goodwill, and better health and wellness among people of different nations. Typical activities support special international events such as Youth Exchange, educational/cultural activities, the Rotary Foundation, and/or World Community Service.

☐ Vocational Service— For the adherence and promotion of high ethical standards in occupations, recognition of the value of all vocations, and the contribution of members' talents to solve societal problems.

☐ New Generations—For the promotion of positive change implemented by youth and young adults involved in leadership development activities, community and international service projects, and exchange programs that enrich and foster world peace and cultural understanding.
