PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE ROTARY CLUB OF YARMOUTH

Vol. 28 No. 39

April 12, 2019

The Main Event

Vocational Service Award - Due next Friday, April 11th. Sally Bowles updated the club and stated there are no nominations as of yet. She commented “Isn’t it sad that to date, we have no nominations?” Several members stated their intention to submit a nomination.

Guest Speaker Alicia Gatspur - Duffy Healthcare – Our guest speaker this week was Alicia Gatspur from Duffy Healthcare. Alicia oversees the program, Mom’s Do Care!, which is a program designed to help mothers abdicated to opioids. Among Massachusetts’ 14 counties, Barnstable ranked 4th in 2017 for overdoses per 100,000 in population. The program is designed to break down barriers, help access resources available and care for the mothers and ultimately the unborn children. The program has expanded to not only women and infants, but up to 3 years of age. Who is eligible? Residents in Barnstable County who are 18 years of age and over, who are pregnant or have children under the age of 3 and have a diagnosis of opioid disorder. They don’t need to be current drug users, but have used them in the past.

Alicia oversees a staff of 3 RNs with regular office hours at the methadone clinics, OB office at Cape Cod Hospital, and see people at community events and meetings. They oversee the care plan and family planning, especially to address future plans to have other children, etc. Since 2015, over 70 women have been enrolled. She noted that babies are born

The Recovery Coaches are the heart and soul of what the organization is about. They meet with the patients and develop a recovery and relapse recovery plan. Connect women to services in the community such as WIC and the Baby Center.

Anyone in the community can refer patients to Moms Do Care! Ask permission for the MDC staff to call them, or the best way is to make the call WITH the person you are referring. The main number is 508-280-6597.

Alicia closed by stating, “Getting over the stigma is the hardest part. Being pregnant is hard enough, and adding addiction to it, it ends up being very difficult to patients.”

Remarkably, she was able to make up her grades and is on track to graduate with her peers. She is in the horticulture shop at Cape Cod Tech, which has qualified for nationals for FFA competitions. “We are so proud to have you, everyone adores you, and I wish we had more students like you,” stated her guidance counselor. Kali is a junior at Cape Cod Tech and earned 1st place in the FFA as Reporter position. 3rd best in the state! Her focus and passion is in hardscapes, where she has competed 2 years in a row and won 2nd place. She is actively involved in FFA, and enjoys that the organization brings everyone together and connects her peers, even in competition. “The teachers give all the encouragement and support we need.” She is very outdoorsy and loves to draw. She volunteers for the Katie Donovan Center, and she stated that helping others is an important part of her life and something she loves and wants to continue contributing. Kudos Kali, we all wish you great success!
