

T-G-I-F-I-Y

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE ROTARY CLUB OF YARMOUTH

Vol. 22 No. 25

February 6, 2015

The Main Event

RIISING STAR: ALLISON MOULTON FROM D-Y REGIONAL H.S.

With her usual zeal and zest, Melissa Hudson, of D-Y's Guidance Department (as well as National Honor Society advisor and coach of the 8th and 9th grade Field Hockey Team), presented an impressive picture of Rising Star, Allie Moulton, as "academically talented, smart, athletic, dedicated, giving, and real." Allie's record as a D-Y student certainly lives up to and beyond those adjectives.

From Advanced Placement statistics and math classes to Field Hockey success – and from mentoring to self-confidence – Allie has placed herself well to give to others and to be a recipient of the best of what D-Y offers. She loves D-Y, and coming to end of the year is "bittersweet." She expressed her conviction that D-Y is "special because of the teachers," and that it is "not just a school, but a family." Allie plans on attendance at Bentley (and Field Hockey) and a career in business management or non-profit management.

GUEST SPEAKER: JENNIFER H. TRUE, BRIDGEWATER STATE UNIVERSITY - CAPE COD

Phil Morris introduced Jennifer True, Director of Bridgewater State University (BSU) Cape Cod in South Yarmouth, located at the former Laurence C. MacArthur Elementary School. She was appointed to the role in September 2014 and has since overseen the opening of this satellite campus, which just opened in mid-January.

Jennifer has over 12 years' experience in higher education, mostly developing relationships with key stakeholders from business, non-profit, and government sectors to determine the academic programming needs that would support economic growth in the region of Southeastern Massachusetts. Most recently, she was the Director of the Workforce Education Resource Center at Cape Cod Community College. Previously, Jennifer worked at Tufts University and Bridgewater State University, where she started her higher education career after earning her Master's Degree in Public Administration.

Jennifer outlined some of the history of Bridgewater State (175 years old) and how the new local campus ("right down the street") came to be. She outlined plans for phased-in operations; renovations; academic and student services; license, certification, and degree programs; and partnerships with the community and with Cape Cod Community College. Starting with a cohort of nine students, BSU is striving for a seamless experience and real help to Cape students.

She is also a full time doctoral student, in her first year of a PhD program in Higher Education Administration at UMASS Boston, and is a former member (4 years) of the Rotary Club of Plymouth. To contact Jennifer True: • Director, Bridgewater State University - Cape Cod, MacArthur Building, 1175 Route 28, South Yarmouth, MA 02664; • (508) 531-1844; • <www.bridgew.edu/capecod>; • <jennifer.true@bridgew.edu>.

DUES: Just a friendly reminder. Membership Dues were due July 1. If you forgot to pay yours please send in your check today or see our Treasurer Charlie LoBue with your credit card.
