A letter from Tami:

So my time to go home is almost here. A month, 30 o more days. It seems impossible. I’ve been here for 11 months and it feels like I just arrived yesterday. I can’t believe my adventure is almost over. That I won’t wake up every morning at 6:00 am, well almost every morning, to say good morning to Steve’s face and that I won’t eat my everyday cereal in the same kitchen I did all this time. I won’t have a yellow bus picking me up every morning to take me to DY, the school that hosted me and made me feel just like another American student.

I am so thankful for everything, my amazing host families, my amazing friends and the amazing Rotarians from the best club ever. You always gave me a smile and made me feel a part of you. I’ve had the opportunity to really get to know some of you and you are amazing people. People ask me what is the favorite part of your exchange? I have to say the people are. I’ve got to meet so many amazing people this past year and I’m going to miss every one of you. I am also going to miss the breakfast and songs that you provided every week.

So for now I say good bye and thank you for everything. Tami
