The Main Event

Cape Cod Healthcare Oncology - Katie Michaud, Executive Director of Cancer Services & Dr. Gabor Menyhart, Chief Physicist

With an emphasis on facility modernization, patient access, and our continued focus on strategic Healthcare partnerships, the expanded Davenport-Mugar cancer center in the new Barbey Patient Care Pavilion will redefine cancer care on the Cape.

The new facility at Cape Cod Hospital will feature a dedicated oncology entrance, spacious waiting area and lobby on the first floor.

2023 Cape Cod Healthcare Cancer Care Statistics

Medical Oncology delivered 30,960 infusions and injections. They had 15,653 office visits and consultations. Radiation oncology delivered 14,672 radiation treatments. They also had 4275 office visits and consultations.

Oncology Rehab is another program they offer. Free 6 week program including supervised exercise. Topics include fatigue management, stress reduction, nutrition, sleep issues, and diabetes education.

New Linear Accelerator provides the ability to perform cranial radiosurgery treatments for the first time in Falmouth for brain cancer. It improves the capability to perform Stereotactic Body radiation therapy. This accelerator doubles to quadruples the speed of delivery which allows them to treat in a much shorter time.

Karina Polk – Newest Member

Karina came to USA 10 years ago from Romania due to her love of travel at the age of 24. She previously worked on Cape Cod as a J1 summer hire. She has a master's in finance and banking. She is the branch manager at the South Yarmouth branch of Cape Cod Five Bank. She was sponsored into membership by Jim Leighton.

Origins of Juneteenth

The Juneteenth flag is a symbol for the Juneteenth holiday in the United States. The first version was created in 1997 by activist Ben Haith and the present version was first flown in 2000. The flag uses the colors of red, white and blue from the American flag. Featured prominently in the center of the flag is a bursting star. Running through the center of the flag horizontally, is an arc that is meant to symbolize the new horizon of opportunity for black people. The red, white, and blue convey that all enslaved people and their descendants are American. The date marks General Order No. 3 issued in Galveston, Texas in 1865. Many states began recognizing Juneteenth by flying the flag over their state capitol buildings, especially after it became a federal holiday on June 17, 2021. Read more about the Juneteenth flag on Parade.com.

Juneteenth, now a federal holiday commemorating the emancipation of enslaved African Americans, is celebrated on the anniversary of June 19, 1865 when Major General Gordon Granger read the proclamation of freedom for slaves in Galveston, Texas. General Order Number 3 began most significantly with: “The people of Texas are informed that in accordance with a Proclamation from the Executive of the United States, all slaves are free. This involves an absolute equality of rights and rights of property between former masters and slaves, and the connection heretofore existing between them becomes that between employer and hired laborer.”

President Abraham Lincoln had issued the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1, 1863, promising freedom to the slaves in the rebellious parts of Southern secessionist states of the Confederacy, but not in federally held territories such as Delaware, Maryland, and West Virginia. It took over two years for the law to make its way across the country as enforcement relied on the advance of Union troops. When emancipation finally came to Texas, the last state to hear the official news as the southern rebellion collapsed, celebration was widespread. While that date didn't mark the unequivocal end of slavery, June 19 became a day of celebration across the United States—created, preserved, and spread by African Americans.

Writes Kelly E. Navies, Museum Specialist of Oral History for the National Museum of African American History & Culture, “I like to think of Juneteenth as a celebration of freedom, of family, and of joy that emerged from this cauldron of the war. After hundreds of years of enslavement, and the intense post-Civil War era, all of these emotions and feelings had built up to a particular point. Then, General Granger arrives with his troops (some of whom were members of the United States Colored troops) to announce that they will enforce the Emancipation Proclamation.” Read more from the museum curators.

In the early years, it was almost exclusively African American communities that participated in the day’s celebrations, often in rural areas to avoid disruptions. Rivers and creeks offered fishing, horseback riding, games and back yards or church grounds hosted many barbecues. Juneteenth also focused on education, self improvement, and prayer services—plus feasting on red strawberry soda, barbecued meats, and special dishes for the occasion. The emphasis was on family, community, celebration and remembering.

When African Americans began to own land, it was donated and dedicated for these festivities. One of the earliest documented land purchases in the name of Juneteenth was organized by Rev. Jack Yates, who raised $1,000 to purchase Emancipation Park in Houston, still popular today and a favorite place for Juneteenth gatherings. In Mexia, the local Juneteenth organization purchased Booker T. Washington Park in Virginia, which has been a place for Juneteenth celebration site in 1898. Read more about its history at Juneteenth.com.

For decades the holiday celebrations were almost exclusively for and among African Americans, in towns and communities scattered across the south. But it grew in popularity after the Great Depression. In 1936, an estimated 175,000 people joined the holiday’s celebration in Dallas. 70,000 attended a “Juneteenth Jamboree” in 1951. In 1945, Juneteenth was introduced in San Francisco by a migrant from Texas, Wesley Johnson. From 1940 through 1970, in the second wave of the Great Migration, more than five million black people left Texas, Louisiana and other parts of the South for the North and the West Coast. As historian Isabel Wilkerson writes, “The people from Texas took Juneteenth Day to Los Angeles, Oakland, Seattle, and other places they went.” During the 1950s and 1960s, the Civil Rights Movement focused the attention of African Americans on expanding freedom and integrating. As a result, observations of the holiday declined again, though it was still celebrated in Texas. In the late 1970s, the Texas Legislature declared Juneteenth a “holiday of significance...particularly to the blacks of Texas,” and establish Juneteenth as a state holiday. Before 2,000, three more U.S. states officially observed the day, and over the next two decades it was recognized as an official observance in all states except South Dakota, until it was declared a federal holiday by President Joe Biden in June 2021. Read an essay by Annette Gordon-Reed "Growing Up with Juneteenth" published in The New Yorker on June 19, 2020.

Like all holidays, Juneteenth responds to cultural, political, and major events in the nation. It has waxed and waned in popularity over its 156 year history. What began as small and local, grew as migration carried the traditions out of the south. Urban areas saw celebrations in parks; states gradually began to codify it into a holiday. Over time, others joined to commemorate, and the celebrations spread. Writes Brianna Holt, a culture writer and editor at The New York Times, “The entire celebration lasted only six hours but had the vitality to keep you feeling warm and loved throughout the summer. It acted as a reminder that there was a community of people who were rooting for you, supported you and wanted to see you succeed. Every time you left a Juneteenth celebration, you took with you new stories, new connections and a new sense of what it meant to be black, but specifically what it meant to be black in Texas. Her essay from 2020 considers the celebrations of her childhood, the evolution of its significance and importance, and how it feels to in the wake of nationwide protests over the killing of Ahmaud Arbery, Breonna Taylor and George Floyd. “Whatever might come, I know where I’ll be on Friday: celebrating the continued fight that the brave and relentless people before me expect for my generation to carry on. Read Brianna Holt’s essay.

Flag Day is a holiday celebrated on June 14 in the United States. It commemorates the adoption of the flag of the United States on June 14, 1777 by resolution of the Second Continental Congress. The Flag Resolution stated "That the flag of the thirteen United States be thirteen stripes, alternate red and white; that the union be thirteen stars, white in a blue field, representing a new constellation.

The United States Army also celebrates the U.S. Army birthday on this date, as Congress adopted the American continental army after reaching a consensus position in the Committee of the Whole on June 14, 1775.

In 1916, President Woodrow Wilson issued a proclamation that officially established June 14 as Flag Day. On August 3, 1949, National Flag Day was established by an Act of Congress. Flag Day is not an official federal holiday. Title 36 of the United States Code, Subtitle I, Part A, CHAPTER 1, § 110 is the official statute on Flag Day; however, it is at the president's discretion to officially proclaim the observance. On June 14, 1937, Pennsylvania became the first state to celebrate Flag Day as a state holiday, beginning in the town of Rennerdale. New York Consolidated Laws designate the second Sunday in June as Flag Day, a state holiday.

(Silent and drop item raffle)

HELP WANTED: Needed one to three club members that can share the duties of writing the articles for the weekly TGIFY. Tomas has been doing a lot of the writing this past year but has taken on other duties in the club. Steve Albright has been doing the layout, finding additional information/stories and publishing the TGIFY for the past 13 years and will continue to do this but cannot take on the additional job of writing. To volunteer or find out additional information contact Tomas or Steve. If nobody steps up to volunteer it could mean the end of or major changes to the TGIFY. In addition, the DEIB committee has been providing weekly submissions for the newsletter so the workload has increased.

COVID & CORKS—Wine cork recycling benefits our earth's sustainability. The Rotary Club of Yarmouth keeps on collecting corks and to date we have shipped at least 10 boxes of corks be recycled and then upcycled. Funded by the Widget Company, Cork Club is a sustainability initiative started in 2007. The goal of the Cork Club is to grow wine cork recycling and make donations to causes that protect our oceans and forests. The Cork Club donates to non-profit entities that clean plastic from our oceans, prevent deforestations and teach better ways to live in harmony with our environment. To date Cork Club has donated $121,800 to these projects. For each natural cork, 2 cents is donated. Synthetic corks are recycled properly. So enjoy your wine and save the corks. All corks can be given to Jill Albright who will then ship them to Cork Club. KEEP THOSE CORKS COMING!!!!

Cutches 4 Africa - Collection of items for the Crutches 4 Africa is an ongoing project, Lou Preziosi has taken over the leadership of this program.

If you, your relatives, friends or neighbors have any mobility devises please collect them and turn them in at the Yarmouth Transfer Station or the Boy Scout Office. You can also reach out to Lou if you need them picked up. Watch for people throwing them out when you visit the transfer station yourself. I saw someone discarding 3 great canes and was able to rescue them before they went into the dumpster.

Thank you to Roby for allowing us to use a storage container at the Yarmouth Waste Facility.

MEALS ON WHEELS – Currently Meals on Wheels is experiencing a shortage of drivers for the delivery of daily meals. If you have a couple of hours one day a week and can volunteer to deliver meals for them, please contact the Elder Services Group at the Yarmouth Senior Center. They are there Monday – Friday from 9 -11. These deliveries are in addition to the service that we provide them though our weekly deliveries on Tuesday.

CAPE COD BRITE LIGHTS

Cape Cod Brite Lights a501c(3) corporation that was started by our Rotary Club is now in it's third year. Its mission is "to help those in need on Cape Cod. "Our main focus to date has been to provide weekend backpacks of nutritional food for needy elementary students in the DY School System. A backpack of food consists of shelf stable milk (white & chocolate), juice carton, cereal, instant oatmeal, two proteins which could be a can of tuna, chicken, pasta, soup or beef stew, a cup of apple sauce, macaroni and cheese, Nutra grain fruit granola bar, cheese its, fruit snacks, pudding cup and 2 pieces of fruit. In addition, to give each student some activities to do during the holiday break we put a coloring book and crayons in each bag. We started with a total of 25 students but have grown to 45, an increase of over 80%. In addition, with the assistance of Interact we have started to provide the school nurse with feminine products for high school girls. In addition we will be providing students in need with bags of hygiene products during the upcoming school year. The Interact Club has applied for a District Grant to support this project.

How you can help:

First: Currently we have a board of directors of 11 members. Our bylaws allow us to have a maximum number of 13. If you would like to be a part of our leadership, please contact Steve Albright.

Second: We fill the backpacks and bags of food every Wednesday night at 5:30PM at the Yarmouth Food Pantry. If you would like to help one or two nights a month, again please contact Steve Albright. Currently we have enlisted the local Girl Scout Troop to help on the first Wednesday of each month and the DY Interact Club to help on the third Wednesday of each month. We are trying to make it a community organization where anybody can be a part of it.

Third: It costs $300—$350 yearly to support one child's backpack and although we don't have a total figure on the hygiene project, we know that the items provided are costly. You can make a donation to support these two projects by sending your check to:

Cape Cod Brite Lights—PO Box 286, West Yarmouth, MA 02673-0286

Or you can visit our website at Capecodbritelightsinc.com and make a contribution with your credit or debit card. In addition you can now sign up to make monthly donations to Brite Lights. A smaller amount each month makes it much easier. Visit our Website.

Fourth: Visit our website and learn more about us. Capecodbritelightsinc.com

Crutches For Africa

A Continuous Project by Yarmouth Rotary Club

Crutches for Africa is not a new project to our Rotary Club. We as a club have done collections for this great service and International project twice before. The first time we collected over 700 mobility devices and the second time we collected over 400 mobility devices. We are now hoping to set this up as an ongoing project. Lou Preziosi along with members of the International Committee are heading this project up, but we would like all Yarmouth Rotarians to help out. Search for any of the desired items in your home, your extended families homes and your neighbors homes. Round up all of the devices and drop them off at the transfer station where we have a storage trailer to store them. They can be dropped off at the gate house just before you drop off your trash and recyclables. If you need help please give Lou Presiosi a call or send him a text to arrange pickup of your items. All of the items collected will be shipped to Africa to help disabled individuals gain mobility that they never have had.

Items that we are looking to collect include: Leg Braces; Crutches; Forearm Crutches; Walkers; Wheelchairs; Prosthetic Limbs; Baby Joggers and Strollers and Bike Trailers. No Commodes or any other type of Personal Hygiene Equipment.

(Also No Electric Wheelchairs)

Leg Braces
