PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE ROTARY CLUB OF YARMOUTH

Vol. 22 No. 28

March 20,, 2015

The Main Event

PROGRAM SPEAKER: ELENA SCHUCK, ROTARY LITERACY MONTH

Elena Schuck, wearing her (symbolic) hat as Mattacheese Middle School librarian, focused attention on Rotary's Literacy Month with energetic discussions on "compare-and-contrast" public and school libraries, staffing, access, materials, and the communities being served. She highlighted aspects of her professional work, responsibilities, and her personal ethos, along with the disclaimer that "no two days are the same." (Once again, Elena's accounts were illustrations of professional commitment and drive.)

As a timely back-up to Elena's personal unpretentiousness, the occasion of HAPPY BUCKS was an opportunity for Carol Woodbury to note that Elena's educational contributions are always "above and beyond; that she is always there for the kids; that she does amazing things with students." As Carol added, "School is not just for learning, but is also for relationships."

HAPPY BUCKS

J$ = HAPPY BUCKS

PHIL MORRIS – it's Friday the 13th and National Pi Day – check out Pat's T-shirt.
PAT ARMSTRONG – $3: true but at least it's not Nov 11, 2011 – National Corduroy Day / the grass in the yard is becoming visible but the storm drains remain covered / returned from the Mass. Park & Rec Conference.

CAROL WOODBURY – (see above).

MARY ANN GRAY – $5: today is her last Yarmouth Rotary day – she is re-locating to Alaska (Seward) where she has a one-year commitment / she has been most impressed (and proud) with this club's community commitment.

TOM TOMASIK – M.O.W. with Steve – really tricky getting around the ice & snow.

JIM SABEN – has to pay a buck for his birthday – no wonder he always had "pie on his birthday."

HAROLD ROBBINS – good to be back making-up at this club – still so active.

MIKE RILEY – late buck.

CURLY CAREY – $4: Good Works meeting after / welcome to Beth at Champ House.

MELEISSA FARRELL – made-up at the Chatham Rotary & Nancy Gardner sends greetings

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Vice-President Melissa Farrell was in fine Leadership Mode as she called the Yarmouth Rotary Club to order (no easy task in itself) in the absence of President Steve. Her stalwart bearing was augmented with her bounteous exemplifications of humor and poise.
