PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE ROTARY CLUB OF YARMOUTH

Vol.23 No. 32

March 4, 2016

The Main Event

GUEST SPEAKER: JACQUELINE LANE, NAMI CAPE COD & THE ISLANDS

Guest Speaker Jacqueline Lane is the deeply committed Executive Director of NAMI Cape Cod & the Islands. NAMI is the abbreviation for National Alliance on Mental Health, and Jackie's organization is the local affiliate of the national and Massachusetts associations. Jackie herself has an extended history of leadership as a volunteer and as a Board member within a number of human service organizations. She has sustained a leadership role in NAMI Cape Cod for five years (even though it is technically a "three-day a week position). Jackie summarized aspects of the structure, the mission, and the local partnerships and support groups of NAMI.

She referenced the strong relationship and correlation between mental health and physical well-being. Their main mission is to help families through • EDUCATION (programming and family-to family groups), • SUPPORT (groups, personal relationships, and community contacts), and • ADVOCACY (removing the stigma and isolation of mental "illness"). They emphasize and lobby for the models of MENTAL HEALTH within a range of communicative activities, and their programing is free. Jackie touched upon "The Challenging Child," a program of collaborative problem solving, working with families and children "who are being asked to do things that they're not ready for."

Contact information: NAMI Cape Cod & the Islands, • 5 Mark Lane, Hyannis, MA 02601-3792, • (508) 778-4277, • website <http://www.namicapecod.org/> • email: info@namicapecod.org, • Jacqueline Lane, Executive Director: jackielane@verizon.net.

NEW MEMBER: BRIAN SULLIVAN

PP Tom Tomasik performed the induction of a new member, Brian Sullivan, into the Yarmouth Rotary with the assistance of his sponsor, George Davis. Brain's vocation classification is Home and Lawn Care.

RIISING STAR: ADRIENNE TARDIF, D-Y REGIONAL H. S.

Returning Club friend, Dale Fornoff, head of D-Y's Guidance Department, introduced as Rising Star, Adrienne Tardif. This came as no surprise to Yarmouth Rotary members, who have witnessed many times her energized persona and dynamic leadership applied within her school, Interact Club, and community projects. She was at ease enlarging upon what the support and inspiration from D-Y, staff, family, Interact (since 8th grade), and Rotarians have meant to her. While claiming that it was harder to speak about herself, Adrienne was effusive in her thanks. She has been accepted into four colleges so far and wants to go into marketing and PR. (Now, which school was it that there seemed to be some cheerleaders present– BU or BC?)

AUCTION ACTION!

Dean Sherman, putting his vocal persuasion skills to work, directed a new Club fund raising endeavor: an auction of "former gifts and re-gifts." Items that made it successfully off the auction block were • a Dunkin' Donut gift card (to Bob Wells), • an Exxon gas card (Chantal Hayes), • ski tickets day pass (Dave Miller), • 1000-piece puzzle (Frank Mastromauro), and • an ice pack (Curt Sears),

ROTARY FOUNDATION AND A NEW PAUL HARRIS FELLOWSHIP

PP Steve Albright highlighted the impact of the R. I. (Rotary International) Foundation, the role of the Matching Grants, and each Club member's annual contribution of $100. He expanded on the power of the contributions from the Paul Harris Fellowships (named in memory and honor of Rotary's Founder).

Steve invited PDG Barry Clayman to come forward. Steve noted to the assembled Club members the significance of the notation, "+5" next to Barry's name on the list of Paul Harris Fellows. In addition he presented Barry with a Paul Harris Fellowship membership in the name of Barry's son-in-law, Jefferson Sherman Strom.
