PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE ROTARY CLUB OF YARMOUTH

Vol. 28 No. 43

May 10, 2019

The Main Event

Cape Cod Tech Rising Star - Kylie Palomba, a junior at Cape Cod Tech. She is a self-advocate and has a contagious positive self image. She is in the Design and Visual Communications shop at Cape Cod Tech and is a member of the ambassador program. She is involved with SKILLS USA, which are kids competing in their area of focus. She serves as chapter secretary for the 2019-20 school year. She will be receiving a Presidential Service Award for doing over 175 hours of community service within a school year. She volunteers at Cape Cod Beach Buggy Association, an advocacy group that focuses on cleaning beaches and ensuring public access to bleachers throughout the Cape and Massachusetts. She has been a Girl Scout since 5th grade year. In the future, she either wants to own her own design studio or go into marine biology due to her love of nature and the Cape.

Interact Member Introductions - Each of the club members introduced themselves to the club. It was great to see how the club has grown year over year.

The New Slate of Officers - The current President Amelia Tardif introduced next years slate of officers, which include: Grace Cotoia, President; Makalea James, Vice President; Jill Powers, Treasurer; and Savannah Johnson, Secretary

Slide Show Presentation - The Interact Club then presented a year-end recap of all of the activities they did this year. Highlights included: helping to coordinate the Yarmouth Recreation “Egg Haunt”, Holiday Party Hosted by The Yarmouth Rotary Club, Gingerbread House Contest will funds benefiting Habitat for Humanity of Cape Cod, with over $700 raised, and the Holly Young Memorial Volleyball Tournament, and a scholarship goes to a DY student every year.

District Grant Presentation to DY - As part of the district grant, where the club rebuilt the tennis backer, added a bench, and planted some trees at the DY tennis courts, we had some funds leftover. With the leftover funds, the club purchased tennis balls, tennis skill set, requests, and pickle balls as well. President Lennon presented these items to the tennis coaches.
