PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE ROTARY CLUB OF YARMOUTH

Vol. 29 No. 16

October 18, 2019

The Main Event

Guest Speaker Mary Vilbon, Director Yarmouth Chamber of Commerce - Her first job was packing, smoking, and selling tobacco. When she was 19 years, she worked at a pizza shop and met her husband! She was paralyzed from the neck down at 19 and she needed to relearn how to walk Guillain Barre. She was told then that she would never walk, have children, or be productive. At ages 25 and 27 had her children and has successfully built a career. She was a successful Mary Kay consultant and even earned her pink car! They then moved to western Massachusetts to a small community of only 700 people. She then went to Mount Holyoke college and worked full time at the local school district as a grant writer, but eventually she was writing grants to keep her job. She didn't finish her degree at Mount Holyoke because she loved her job and decided to focus on that. She resigned from the school district and then wrote her own degree in Community Development at UMass Amherst. While working in Shelburne, she was approached by filmmakers to film in town and put the town on the map for production. She took great pride in aiding the businesses and negotiate with the film industry and focus on film tourism to help the community. She won the most prestigious award in the state for tourism. She was interviewed and got the job offer on her second interview at the Yarmouth Chamber and has loved her decision. She is currently on working many projects to help businesses in town including tapping into the fiber that is running along Route 28.

Paul Harris Fellowship - District Governor Steve Albright presented and thanked Carol Woodbury for her continued contributions and donations to the Rotary Foundation, which will impact thousands of people across the world to improve their lives. Carol has chosen to support one of the six areas of focus with her donations. She has selected women's health as the area of focus where she wants her contributions to the foundation to support.

Announcements

Membership Committee - The next meeting is on November 7 at the Yarmouth Chamber at 5pm.

Christmas Party & Auction - Barbara Adams and Roby Whitehouse gave an update regarding the auction and party. The goal is to raise as much money as possible for the children in need in the community. Good Works for the year is funded through the auction, so it is vitally important. Please provide any information on auction items so that we can begin to speak about the dinners and vacations ahead of time so everyone can prepare to bid high and often! We will also be doing a silent auction in the other room so that we can maximize the time and bidding! The date of the auction is Friday, December 6 at begin at 6:30AM! The first meeting will be at the DY Administration Building on Station Ave at 5:30PM on Thursday the 17th.

Seaside Festival Parade - The club marched in the Seaside Festival Parade last weekend and participated with the DY Interact Club! Club members were donned in Red, White, and Blue!

Ian Cooke Cub Scouts - Ian made a presentation and asked for support in selling popcorn so that all Scouts can participate in all of the various trips this year.
