The Main Event

GUEST SPEAKER: LARRY DAPSIS, DEER TICK PROJECT COORDINATOR

The Cape Cod Cooperative Extension, part of Barnstable County government, operates a public health service monitoring and publicizing the impact of the tick population on the residents of Cape Cod. The key county official involved is Larry Dapsis, an entomologist, and the Deer Tick Project Coordinator. Larry outlined how the reality of chronic illnesses from tick bites has now reached the level of a “public health crisis,” with no long-term solutions in sight. While 95% of the cases of tick-borne disease take place within 13 states, ticks and their resulting effects have been found in 49 of the 50 states and in 80 countries, as well.

With PowerPoint assistance, he went through the inventory of local tick species, delineating their respective characteristics, behaviors, life cycles, and hosts. He pointed out some of the possible disease parameters, from Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever, Tularemia, Erlichiosis, STARI, Tularemia, Babesiosis, Anaplasmosis, and Lyme Disease. He concluded with a Three-Phase program of awareness, responses, and protections. (Impressions: sobering, well delivered, and much-needed.) Larry Dapsis can be reached at • (508)-375-6642, • <www.capecodextension.org>, or • <Ldapsis@barnstablecounty.org>.

RIISING STAR: HIROTO WATANABE

Dale Fornoff, Director of D-Y Guidance, did the introduction honors for D-Y Rising Star, Hiroto Watanabe. She expressed her observation that the selection of Hiroto was an “easy choice” and summarized the range of activities that characterized his high school career: clubs (Key Club), sports, (track), student government (National Honor Society), and academics (4.0 G.P.A.). However, she thought that his most significant hallmark (his “first instinct”) was his desire and acts of “giving back.”

Hiroto expressed his passion for his D-Y experiences: “...the teachers, the leadership, the classes, the culture of growing.” He talked of his opportunities and hard work from the track team, from AP courses (such as calculus), and from the Virtual High School. He lauded the fact that if a student wants a course of study, even if D-Y doesn’t have it, “they will find a way to get it.” For college, Hiroto is looking at Columbia (his 1st choice) and Tufts. (It is obvious from our viewpoint that whatever college he attends, the benefits will be mutual.)

UPDATE & REQUEST FROM JOHN W. TERRIO

John Terrio, well-known local auctioneer, fundraiser, and D-Y School supporter (Class of 1977), was on hand to provide a progress report on the history, status, and financing of the new lighting arrangements at the D-Y football field – a location that will be of benefit and usage to all the other sports (except baseball) and related student activities. The financing plan is in Year 3 of a seven-year plan, and John was introducing a request for further fundraising participation from local Rotarians. His auctioneering prowess was in good form as he successfully elicited competitive responses when putting tickets to the Holiday Pops out to bid.

DUES: Just a friendly reminder. Membership Dues were due July 1. If you forgot to pay yours please send in your check today or see our Treasurer
