PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE ROTARY CLUB OF YARMOUTH

Vol.26 No. 17

October 28, 2016

The Main Event

GUEST SPEAKER: FRANK FREDERICKSON, YARMOUTH CHIEF OF POLICE

YPD Officer Kevin Lennon introduced Chief of Police, Frank Frederickson, with the reflection that the Chief Frederickson's 37 years in the YPD distinguishes him as Yarmouth's longest active municipal employee. The Chief himself focused outward with thanks to the Yarmouth Rotary's recent luncheon for public safety responders and with department updates such as the 7% drop in "calls for service" from the previous year. He attributes the measures and rates of crime going down as due to hard work, technology, and innovative programs such as the community's Crime Watch program. There are 125 Crime Watch captains within the town – now with the additional trained-owner participation of some of the 3000 registered dogs (each participating dog being awarded their own "Crime Watch bandana").

RISING STAR: ALEXA, DENNIS-YARMOUTH REGIONAL HIGH SCHOOL

On hand from the D-Y Guidance Department was Josh Clarkin to do the honors of presenting D-Y Rising Star, senior Alexa Greene. He noted Alexa's impressive personal growth from her freshman year as "extremely shy" to her breaking out in all aspects of the high school culture, becoming an articulate, self-confident student with leadership, academic, and personal skills who gives back to school and community. Alexa articulated her own insights about that growth with appreciation to D-Y and, in particular, her mother, Stacey, who was also present
