Reasons to love Rotary right now ... Reason #250: Rotarians make it a great day!

Prior Week: May 11th - History of Submarines Part Two - John Lindstedt
John returned for part two of his riveting story about the Polar Transit of the USS Nautilus. A book that captures a lot of information about this incredible true story is titled "Ice Diaries."

It was a top-secret mission on the world's first nuclear-powered submarine taking a dangerous journey beneath the vast, unexplored Arctic ice cap during the height of the Cold War. It was an important and monumental achievement. John Lindstedt is a former nuclear submarine officer having "Qualified in Submarines" in 1974. He served during the Cold War, making three deterrent patrols in the Mediterranean Sea.

Last Week: May 18th - Crisis Prevention - Matt Wolak

Matt spoke about training for crisis prevention in Healthcare, Education, and Human services organizations. Part of his services is to help identify each individual staff member's role and responsibility in a crisis, mapping the appropriate de-escalation training, and eliminating risk.

Crisis Prevention Institute Inc. is the worldwide leader in evidence-based de-escalation and crisis prevention training and dementia care services. Since 1980, they have helped train more than 16 million people within service-oriented industries including education, healthcare, behavioral health, long term care, human services, security, corrections, corporate, and retail.

This Week: May 25th - Four-way Test Award-Brenda Merschdorf
- Thanks, Jeannette

June 22nd
Greenfield Park Picnic Area 1, 5-9PM. Please RSVP to Judy Shabman on or before June 15th. 😊

P.S. Funny stuff 😊: My Roomba just beat me to an M & M that I dropped on the floor. I guess this is how the war against machines will begin. ♦ Dear Algebra, please stop asking us to find your X. She's never coming back and don't ask Y. ♦ Don't be mean. Be median, range or mode. ♦ I'm not arguing, I'm practicing for law school. ♦ You can't tell me what to do. You're not my daughter. ♦ Math. The only place where people buy 68 watermelons, but no one asks why. ♦ They said, don't give up on your dreams. So, I went back to sleep. ♦ Dear Daughter-In-Law, thanks for not selling my son to the circus. I know it is tempting sometimes. ♦ 😊

Thank you for joining our meeting!
